

Same or DIFFERENT?

No difference?

Similarities and differences!

We all have differences!

There are differences that we can see:

There are differences that we can see:

There are differences that we can see:

There are differences that we can see:

There are differences that we can see:

There are differences that we can see:

There are differences that we can see:

There are differences that we can't see:

There are differences that we can't see:

There are differences that we can't see:

There are differences that we can't see:

There are differences that we can't see:

There are differences that we can't see:

There are differences that we can't see:

There are differences that we can't see:

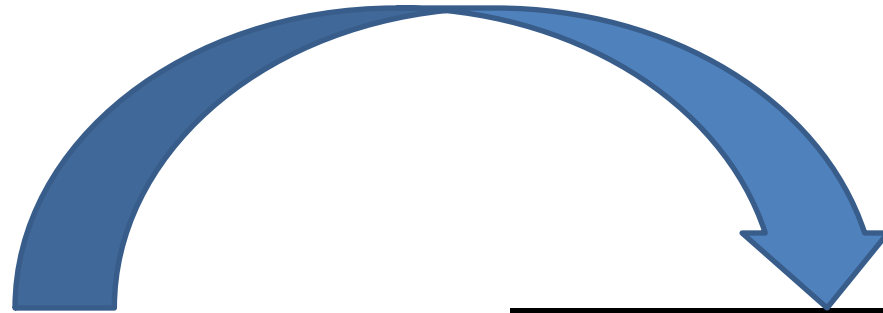

A very special difference:

A very special difference:

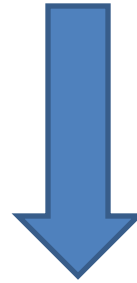

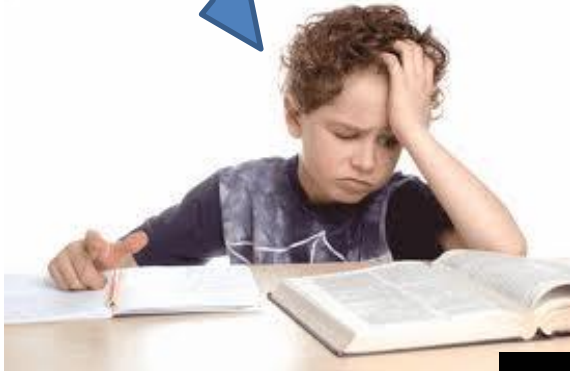

Autis

A very special difference:

Autism

When there are differences between two people, one person can help the other.

What about someone who has autism?

Thank you!!

